

HOWARD MEDICAL GRADUATES.

On the evening of the fifth inst., the Medical, Dental and Pharmaceutic colleges of Howard University, held their annual commencement, at the Congregational church, 10th and G sts., N. W. The occasion brought out a magnificent audience, representing the best people of both races. Dr. Teunis S. Hamilton, acting president of the University, conferred the degrees on twenty-eight graduates in medicine, nine in dentistry, and ten in pharmacy. The charge to the class was delivered by Prof. J. M. Lamb, of the Medical Faculty and the music was supplied by Hoffman's Orchestra, under the capable direction of Mr. Elzie S. Hoffman. The presidents of the three classes were respectively Dr. Wm. E. Lane, Dr. A. Russell, Jr., and Dr. W. L. Board. The other officers were: Dr. Edward B. Terry, Chairman of the Executive Committee, Dr. Geo. R. Ferguson, Chairman of the Committee on Invitations, Dr. Jacob A. White, Chairman of Committee of Arrangements and Dr. C. F. Green, Chairman of the Reception Committee. Too much credit cannot be given to Dr. F. J. Shadd, the dean of the Medical School and his able assistant, in the splendid showing made. Hoffman's celebrated orchestra of fourteen pieces enlivened the occasion with music to the great satisfaction of all.

BRUCE GRITS MELANGE.

truthful heart. His mission to the North was for the express purpose of diverting attention from the wrongs which the Negro then suffered and still suffers and which he defended with his characteristic eloquence and persuasiveness, the like of which had never before been heard in the North. Yet there is another side—an ugly, black side, a bloody side which no white man in the South has the courage to expose. The conspirators of 1902-3, are not as eloquent as Grady, but they are more crafty and diplomatic and therefore, more dangerous. Grady's speeches give the lie to the latest attempts of the white South to discredit the value of the Negro as a good citizen and his claim to just treatment at the hands of those whom he is still enriching by his labor.

EDITOR ROBINSON EAST.

Albany, N. Y., Special.—Divine services were well attended at both Methodist and Baptist churches, Sunday evening. The Young People's Meeting at the Baptist church was well attended. Tuesday evening a meeting was held to organize a Young People's Literary Society, at Hamilton St., A. M. E. church. A goodly number responded. The movement is a worthy one, as the past five years readily shows the necessity of such affairs, towards benefitting the younger class of ladies and gentlemen. Mr. Magnus L. Robinson, Editor and publisher of the Industrial Advocate, was the guest of Wm. H. Johnson, last week, also President of the Wm. McKinley Institute, of Alexandria, Va., Dr. Johnson, is a representative of that institution.

Master Reginald H. S. Dudley, invited a few friends to his birthday party, Monday evening at his residence, 85 Elk st.

We congratulate Mr. Henry Hyson and Mr. Robert Thompson, on their new undertaking in the way of opening a first class restaurant and ice cream saloon. Beginning from to-day they are ready for business, and solicit the patronage of every one, promising to take the best of care of them. The Odd Fellows and Household of Ruth, have their annual sermon preached to them Sunday evening, at Hamilton st. church.

The Misses Epps, of Waterford, the Misses Briggs, of Troy, and Miss Martin, of Lansingburg, attended divine services in Albany Sunday.

SUMMER SCHOOL FOR TEACHERS.

Under the General Direction of Mr. Roscoe Conkling Bruce.

This school will be held at the Tuskegee Institute, under the auspices of the General Education Board of New York, six weeks, June 29th to August 7th. Prof. Lewis B. Moore, Dean of the Teachers' College, of Howard University, Dr. Lucy E. Moten, Principal of the Normal School for Negroes, both of Washington, D. C., Rabbi Levy, of Pittsburg, Pa., Prof. Chas. H. Albert, of the Pennsylvania State Normal School, Dr. W. E. B. DuBois, of Atlanta University, Rev. Edgar Gardner Murphy of the South Education Board, Mr. David E. Cloyd, of the General Education Board, and Hon. Isaac W. Hill, State Superintendent of Education, of Alabama, will be among the teachers and lecturers of the school. Especial attention will be given to methods and subject matter as well as to kindergarten, manual training and industrial work. A grand opportunity for colored teachers of the South. Reduced rates of one fare plus twenty-five cents on railroads in the South.

For further information as to courses offered, tuition, board, etc., write to BOOKER T. WASHINGTON, Prin., Tuskegee, Alabama.

Hon. E. E. Smith, late minister to Monrovia, Liberia, and now a prominent educator of Fayetteville, N. C., was in this city this week and paid our sanctum a pleasant visit. His son Mr. E. E. Smith, Jr., graduated from the Medical Department of Howard University last Friday night, with high honors.

A BEAUTIFUL FACE LOSES ITS BEAUTY WHEN UNADORNED WITH A HANDSOME HEAD OF HAIR. GLOSSINE is a true hair food, and consequently a true hair tonic, which feeds, invigorates, vitalizes, permeates, fertilizes, resuscitates, enlivens, and stimulates the bulbs, glands, oil sacs, follicles, adjuncts, and roots of the human hair. When the plant is withered, sickly, drooping, and dying, we give it water ere it die. Just so should we apply GLOSSINE to the harsh, unsightly dropping, dying hair, for on this principle of common sense was GLOSSINE formulated by one of America's most noted pharmacists—not from lead, mercury, bismuth, and other mineral poisons, but from vegetable and botanical products only, which can work no injury to the human hair. Cupidity and the desire for quick wealth have tempted many people, ignorant both as to pharmacy and chemistry, to sell to the people so-called hair tonics, which (on account of their low price) contain mineral poisons, the immediate effect of which cause the hair to grow quickly, but whose certain end is falling hair and a bald head. There is only one safe course to pursue—use only on your hair an absolutely guaranteed vegetable remedy for the hair, such as GLOSSINE really is, which can only do good, and work no injury. Which is the cheapest to buy, GLOSSINE, a genuine, meritorious hair tonic at a moderate price, or a worthless, hair-killing nostrum at a penny? GLOSSINE cures all diseases of the hair and scalp, and gives to the hair length, lustre, life, vitality, and beauty. It makes the hair grow quickly, thick, long, and luxurious; covers all bald spots; gives to it that beautiful, shiny gloss (from which it takes its name), and causes the hair to grow so long and so soft that it can be dressed with ease and as you please. GLOSSINE makes the hair soft, wavy, straight, glossy, and gives to it a texture as fine and pliable as the softest silk. Price for large box, 50c.; price for the complete treatment (3 large boxes), only $1.00. We pay all charges.

NOTE.—Many druggists may try to sell you something else, on which they make more profit, or because they may not have GLOSSINE in stock. If your druggist cannot supply you, send the price, with your name and address and name of dealer, and we will send same promptly, prepaid.
